

DAVID COPE:

A Poet's Journey, 1968-2003

Thursday,
October 30, 2003

Poetry reading and reception begins at 7:30 p.m.

Grand Rapids Community College Library
2nd floor, located at 140 Ransom Avenue, NE

David Cope currently teaches drama and creative writing at Grand Rapids Community College and Shakespeare at both Grand Rapids Community College and at Western Michigan University. David has published six books of poems, including his most recent Turn the Wheel (2003). Mr. Cope will be reading some of his poetry and will be available for book signing. Copies of Turn the Wheel will be available for purchase.

Doughnuts and cider will be served.

In conjunction with this event, a retrospective exhibit of David's career will be on display in the GRCC Library from October 30 – November 14. Follow the journey of a contemporary poet over a 35-year time span through his published works, letters, photographs and awards.

For information call (616) 234-3867.

