Special thanks to our event sponsor:

Dave Steinfort is a life-long educator and retired Grand Rapids Community College faculty and academic dean. Since retirement, Dave and his wife Shirley have traveled extensively around the world and throughout North America. During these travels, they have photographed wildlife and the many other beauties of God's creation. On their adventure to Southern Africa Dave initially wanted to photograph the "Big 5" (Lion, Rhinoceros, Elephant, Cape Buffalo, and Leopard), but almost immediately realized there was so much more to Africa than the "Big 5." Soon, the words "beauty and majesty" took on special meaning in relationship to the African countries of Zambia, Botswana, and South Africa that they visited. Come let Dave share with you "The Beauty and Majesty of Southern Africa" through the lens of his camera and memories of his heart.
